Series: Matthew: Your Kingdom Come

Title: A Generous Kingdom

Scripture: Matthew 20:1-16

What did you appreciate most about the testimonies shared today?

Did anything challenge or encourage you about your own life?

20:1-16 – After the employer hired workers at different times in the day, what was unusual and unexpected about his payment of them?

Did the workers have a right to be upset?

Can this parable be compared to any of our experience in life, in the church, and in following Jesus?

Who do you relate to in this story? Have you ever been upset, like the earliest workers? Or do you feel more undeserving of your wages?

What point does the vineyard owner make at the end, and what truth does this illustrate about how God works in His kingdom?

Overall, what should the focus of the workers be?
How could this look in our church and daily lives?
