SCENE 1: Kingdom Message

Jesus continued to teach people, “The Kingdom of God has come—turn from your sins and turn to God!”

One day, he climbed up a hill with a group of his closest followers. They sat down together and Jesus began to teach them about God's Kingdom.

He said, *“God blesses those who realize their need for him;
the humble and poor, the gentle and merciful—the Kingdom of God belongs to them.
God blesses the pure in heart and those who hunger and thirst to be with Him.
You'll be blessed when you are hated, mocked and excluded because you are my followers.
Be happy about it—you will get great rewards in heaven!”*

Then Jesus went on to teach about God's laws that were given to Moses.

Jesus said, *“Don't think I came to get rid of the laws of Moses and the writings of the Prophets.
I have come to fulfill them! God's laws are alive and will last forever—live by them and show others the way. That's how you'll find honor in the Kingdom.”*

He went on to teach, *“The laws and commands tell you not to murder, but I say if you hate someone or insult them, you are just as guilty as a murderer. Your words and actions bring judgment on you.”
“The laws also tell us to never have sex with someone else's spouse. But I say anyone who even looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery in his heart.”*

He also taught them, “If someone steals your shirt from you, offer them your coat too. Live generously! Love your enemies. Anyone can love their friends, but you are to love the unlovable. You must live differently, doing what is good, right and perfect—just like God your Father.”

The people were amazed at Jesus' teaching; he had real power and authority—unlike their teachers of the law.

Later the Pharisees asked Jesus, “When is this ‘Kingdom’ that you are teaching about going to come?” Jesus replied, “The Kingdom of God is not something you can predict. People will not say, ‘here it is,’ or ‘there it is,’ because the Kingdom of God is within you.”

▼ DIALOGUE (These questions are a good start for you to draw out the group's observations about the story)

- What do we learn about the Kingdom of God from this scene?
What does it look like? Where is it?
- In your own words, what is Jesus teaching his followers in this scene?
The Pharisees had created a way for humans to be accepted by God by their actions. Jesus took the commands and laws that God gave Moses and revealed the inner attitudes behind the actions—showing that outward actions are not enough. Our heart is more important than our actions to God.
- In this story, Jesus shows people how to live in God's ways.
Where in previous stories have we seen God do this?
Adam & Eve (God walked with them teaching them how to live closely to him), Cain—"if you do what is right", Noah—"life is in the blood", Moses—laws & commands, Prophets—God spoke through them to remind people of how to live in his ways.
- How are Jesus' Kingdom teachings similar to what God taught them in the past stories?
Since the beginning of creation God has been showing people how to live closely with him and live in his ways—the ways of his Kingdom. Jesus continues to show us how to live in these ways through his teaching and through living out the Kingdom perfectly with his life.
- What do you think Jesus meant by saying "I have come to fulfill the laws of Moses and the writings of the Prophets?"
- What do we learn about Jesus from this scene?

SCENE 2: Parables of the Kingdom

Jesus continued to teach about the Kingdom of God using short stories that had powerful meanings, called parables.

He said, “The Kingdom of God is like a tiny seed that is planted in a field. This seed may be small at first, but it grows into a large tree where birds can come and find shelter.”

Jesus told dozens of stories like this to the crowds. He said the Kingdom is...

*Like a hidden treasure buried in a field — worth diligently searching for.
Like yeast spread in a large ball of dough — just a little will change a lot.
Like a precious pearl — worth trading everything for.
Like a great feast — where the poor and the outcast all get invited, and on and on...*

People were amazed at Jesus’ teaching and wisdom. They understood some of these pictures, but others remained a mystery to them.

A young man came up to Jesus and asked, “What good things must I do to get into the Kingdom?”

Jesus replied, “God is the only one who is good. Follow his commandments.”

The man said, “I have obeyed his commands—what else must I do?”

“Go and sell everything you have and give the money to the poor. Then, come and follow me.”

When the man heard this, he went away very sad because he didn’t want give up his great wealth and possessions.

Jesus told his disciples, “It’s very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God—it’s easier for a camel to fit through the eye of a needle!”

“Then who in the world can enter the Kingdom?” asked his disciples.

Jesus replied, “The truth is, no one can enter the Kingdom of God unless they have been born a second time by God’s Spirit. Humans can only give human life, but God’s Spirit gives new life in the Kingdom.”

The entrance to the Kingdom of God is narrow—only a few will find it. But the road that leads to destruction is very wide and many will chose this way and live only for themselves.”

SCENE 3: Jesus and Nicodemus

One night a Pharisee named Nicodemus came to Jesus and said, "Rabbi, we know you were sent by God to teach us. Your miracles haven't proven to us that God is with you."

Jesus replied, "You're right—but unless someone is born a second time they will never understand God's Kingdom."

"What do you mean?" Nicodemus questioned, "How can someone who is fully grown climb back inside their mother and be born a second time?"

Jesus answered him, "The truth is, no one can enter the Kingdom of God unless they have been born a second time by God's Spirit. Humans can only give human life, but God's Spirit gives new life in the Kingdom."

"How can this happen!?" Nicodemus asked.

Jesus replied, "You are a respected Jewish teacher, but you don't know this simple truth? If you won't believe me when I teach you about everyday things, how will you believe me when I tell you about God's Kingdom?"

"What I am telling you is true. God showed his great love for people by sending me—his only son—to this world. Anyone who believes in me and lives in my ways will find life that is complete and eternal! He sent me here to save people—not to judge them. Those who want to live in sin and darkness will reject me and bring God's judgment on themselves. But those who want to live in God's ways will trust me and live forever!"

▼ DIALOGUE (These questions are a good start for you to draw out the group's observations about the story)

- Why do you think what Jesus was teaching was hard to understand for Nicodemus (or anyone)?
- How does someone “enter the Kingdom” according to this scene?
According to all three scenes?
- What do we learn about Jesus from this story?
- What do you think is the connection between living in God's ways and believing in Jesus?

◆ APPLICATION (Optional questions that also work well in smaller groups)

- What did you notice from the story for the first time?
- What questions do you have about the story? What do you wonder about?
- How did the story challenge or encourage you?
- What does it mean to “believe” in Jesus? How is someone different who does this?
- Describe what a group of people “living in God's Kingdom” would be like today.
How do they treat each other? ...the poor and needy? ... God?
How would they be different in our world?
- What do you think it means for YOU to live in the Kingdom of God?
What are some specific ways you can do that?
